Using the Directory

What is this Directory?

This directory is an initial effort to gather together in one document a wide range of providers of prevention-related trainings. Workshops, technical assistance and speakers. Now you can find some answers to:

- Who provides . . .
- What services . . .
- Where . . .
- And for how much.

This document is an alphabetical listing of over 80 providers of services across the State of Maine. They provide an assortment of trainings, workshops, technical assistance and speakers in seventeen prevention categories plus an interesting combination of "other" related topics. The Directory also identifies where in the state these organizations and individuals will provide their services, and if there are related expenses.

How do I use the Directory?

To find a resource, look through the Resource Directory Index at the front of the Directory. All providers are listed alphabetically under broad topic areas, such as Family Dynamics and Violence Prevention. You will find the names of the individuals, the organizations they are affiliated with, if any, and the titles of their particular presentations. If a providers services fall under more than one heading, he or she will be listed more than once.

When you find a provider who interests you, go to the body of the document, and find that individual/organization in alphabetical order. The resource pages for each person include contact and fee information, a description of the service, other services provided, and a few sentences that supply more details.

Please contact the providers directly for the particulars of services and any related costs.

How was the information gathered?

Initial input for the Directory came through two sources. The Office of Substance Abuse Prevention Program requested input from their funded projects on trainers and and speakers to include. Additionally, a postcard requesting similar information was included in the July 1999 Dirigo Prevention Coalition Connections Newsletter. After the preliminary information was received, each potential resource was contacted individually by phone for their willingness to be included in the Resource Directory and for additional information. The results of those efforts are the entries in this Directory.

Can other resources be added?

There are more wonderful trainers, speakers and providers of technical assistance who we did not know about at the time of this printing. However, this document is developed from a database that allows for the addition of new providers. The Office of Substance Abuse plans to update this document over time. New additions, deletions and corrections can be submitted to the Office of Substance Abuse by using the Additions and Changes form provided in the back of this document.

Who can I contact for more information or for assistance?

The University of Maine Cooperative Extension has 16 county offices located throughout Maine. County staff, working in collaboration with local citizen advisory boards, determine what educational programs will best serve county residents. Staff then design and deliver programs (such as the ones listed above) and provide resources on a wide range of topics related to sustainable agriculture, natural resources, children, youth and families. Programs will vary from county to county. For a listing of county offices, their toll-free numbers and programs, visit the web site listed above.

Service ☒ Training or Workshop

Name: Faculty/Staff Training

☐ Speaker

☐ Technical Assistance

Description Designed to educate faculty/staff on the dynamics of dating violence as well as other oppressive relationships that are a result of power dichotomies in current social culture. This presentation provides information on how to intervene in abusive relationships, community resources, and how to create a non-oppressive school environment. The Youth Educators are a large part of this presentation so that the faculty/staff are informed from a student's perspective.

2 Topic Area: Interactive Theater

Service ☒ Training or Workshop

Name: Middle School Presentations

The Young Adult Abuse Prevention program (YAAPP) of Family Crisis Services offers interactive theatrical presentations to school and community groups, with a primary focus on dating violence. We believe that domestic and/or dating violence is rooted in sexism and that sexism is a product of the power imbalance in our culture. Our program is constantly growing and changing so if your venue needs are not represented here, please call anyway to find out if we can be of assistance to you. We serve Cumberland and Sagadahoc Counties.

1 Topic Area: Smoking Prevention

Service ☐ Training or Workshop

Name: "A Puff of Reality"

☐ Speaker

☐ Technical Assistance

Description I give assemblies to elementary school children (grades 4, 5, 6 preferred) on the dangers of smoking and tobacco use. I "light" a smoking machine which produces the disgusting tar and resin. I talk about the content of tobacco, how tobacco ads are tricky, the physical side effects/disease processes, the addicting component of nicotine and share heart wrenching stories.

2 Topic Area: Self-destructive Behavior

Service ☐ Training or Workshop

Name: "A Dose of Reality"

☒ Speaker

☐ Technical Assistance

Description I give assemblies to Jr. High and High School students concerning drugs, underage drinking, suicide and the consequences of making poor choices. With all of my tubes, blades, charcoal and ER equipment, I actually show the teens what happens as the result of an overdose. I talk about facing the fears of peer pressure and explain that everyone has the power to make good choices.

A native of Massachusetts, Linda Dutil has lived in the state of Maine for the past 15 years with her husband and their three school aged children.

In her experience as an emergency room nurse, Linda has seen the ugly impact of poor decisions young people sometimes make. She has presented her program to thousands of junior high and high school students across the Country.

Name: Substance Abuse as a Tool Due to Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder.

□ Speaker

☐ Technical Assistance

Description In many individuals who have experienced severe trauma--especially violent traumas, substance abuse can be a tool for (poor) coping and very often, sabotages the recovery process.

Post-traumatic stress disorder, in its most severe form, is not understood to be the self-destructive force that it is when the individual misuses/abuses various substances. P.T.S.D. can be treated with the current method known as the counting method, as well as with cognitive behavioral approaches.

	Description
	Provides information on the dynamics of domestic violence and the effects of abuse on the family, as well as information about appropriate responses to abuse and services available. Workshops can be customized for any audience.

The Maine Coalition to End Domestic Violence was formed in 1977 by women who joined together to help battered women and their children and to work toward ending domestic abuse in Maine. MCEDV consists of a state office and member projects, which together provide direct services (a 24-hour hotline system at each project; emergency shelter, referrals and information; court advocacy; support groups; and monitoring of batterer's education programs) as well as public information, technical assistance, and training for law enforcement agencies, medical professionals, and state and local entities in Maine. All of Maine's counties are served by domestic violence projects.
